CRISIS

In British Cabinet Has Become Acute Since Resignation

OF ATTORNEY GEN-ERAL CARSON

Cabinet May Not Be Able to Compose Differences

FREQUENT MEETINGS HELD

Since the Balkan Situation
Has Developed and It is Generally Agreed That
There is a Wide Divergence of Opinion On Conscription Issue and the Near-East Question.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Oct. 19.—Great Britain is waiting anxiously to learn whether the cabinet ministers will be able to compose their differences and continue the government without swapping horses in mid-stream. The military difficulties which confront
the allies have taken a position of secondary importance for the time being.

The cabinet has been holding long and frequent meetings since the Balkan crisis developed. Both newspapers and politicians agree that vital differences of opinion have arisen over the conscription issue and the near east question. In the meantime party newspapers are carrying on a bitter debate and exchanging accusations of lack of patriotism and of placing party and private interests above those of the country.

The resignation of Sir Edward Carson, attorney general was the first proof of differences in the cabinet. The reason assigned for his withdrawal is disagreement with the cabinet's policy in regard to the near east, but the specific point of division is withheld, as in the case of the retirement of Foreign Minister Decasse of France, in whose footsteps Sir Edward Carson appears to follow.

Speaking in Dublin last night,
John Redmond declared the position of the coalition government was precarious.

"Any day we may be faced with another reconstruction," he said,
"or with proposals which would end instantly the political truce and would round the British people into contending factions."

The cabinet and the country as a whole would regard a general election on party lines as a calamity.
If such a contest were fought on the question of conscription, it might be expected to foment great bitterness and class dissension.

The anti-conscriptionist newspapers are demanding that a fair trial
be given to the plan of voluntary enlistment under the direction of the Earl of Derby before there is any further talk of a change.

Much discussion is heard of the injection of fresh and younger blood into the cabinet. Only a few weeks ago David Lloyd-George had a large following, but the anti-conscriptionists, virtually all of whom are in his own party, now seem to be lukewarm toward him.

One complaint from the newspapers is that a cabinet of twenty-two members is too cumbersome a body to manage the affairs of the government. On the other hand, there is said to be dissatisfaction in the cabinet that the conduct of the war is given over to a small committee.

FIGHT FOR REDUCED FARE

Instituted By Prosecuting Attorney Is Won and Company Must Grant Reduction and Other Demands Or Quit Business—Commissioners May Refuse to Renew Franchise.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Oct. 19.—By a decision handed down by the Ohio Supreme court today, the Northern Ohio Traction and Light company is ousted from Stark county.

The quo warranto proceedings attacking the traction company and seeking to end its franchise in Stark county, was instituted by Herbert C. Pontius, prosecutor of Stark county.

The franchise was given the road
in 1892 for an indefinite period by the county commissioners. The company claimed the right to hold the franchise perpetual.

Pontius sued to terminate it and the court upheld his contention, as did the Supreme court today.

The general effect of the court's decision in the N. O. T. and L. case is to establish definitely the principle that a public utility franchise granted originally for an indefinite period, may be terminated at will by either company or the sub-division which gave the franchise. This is expected to be received with special interest in a number of communities
over the state where similar disputes
exist over franchise rights.

The specific object of the Traction company's fight against the Traction and Light company was to secure a reduction of fare between Canton
and Massillon from 15 to 10 cents,
and to secure with this fare transfers on local lines in both cities. The officials now are free to insist on these terms under threat of refusing to renew the company's franchise.

The N. O. T. and L. lines connect with Canton, Massillon and other cities in the western and southern part of Stark county, with Akron, Barberton, New Philadelphia, and communities near these cities.

The present case was instituted direct in the Supreme court April 1, 1913.

Previously the court of appeals
of Stark county had rendered judgment in favor of the company in ouster proceedings started by former Prosecutor Charles Krichbaum, August 13, 1912, on instructions of the Stark county commissioners. The court of appeals decision, rendered April 1, 1913, is overruled, inferentially by the supreme court.

The court's decision today was based on the precedent of the case in which the city of Akron several years ago, was authorized by the supreme court to terminate the franchise of the Akron Gas company, which had held a franchise for an indeterminate period.

The vote of supreme court judges
on the N. O. T. and L. case was four to three. It was said Chief Justice Nichols, and Judges Johnson, Wanmaker and Matthias voted to oust
the company and Judges Donahue, Newman and Jones voted against ousting.

BULGARIAN TROOPS REACH BORDER IN ADVANCE ON SERBS

While Sir Edward Grey was still telling the English people that Bulgaria might join the entente allies the Bulgarians were getting ready to cast their lot with Germany. Mexican Bandits Rob and Murder; Train Wrecked Near Brownsville, By Desperados Who Loot Passengers

Brownsville, Tex., Oct. 19.—Inspired by race hatred as well as desire for loot, twenty Mexicans who claimed to be followers of Luis De La Rosa, leader of the so-called Texas revolution held up and robbed a train near Olmito, seven miles north of here last night. As a result,
three men are dead; another is probably fatally wounded and four others are seriously hurt. The bandits are believed to have escaped into Mexico.

The scene of the robbery was three miles from the Rio Grande. The Mexicans as they fired at the train crew and passengers shouted "Viva Pizano! Viva Carranza!"

Pizano was a co-leader with De La Rosa.

The train, a southern passenger train on the St. Louis, Brownsville and Mexico railroad, was wrecked
before being attacked. United States soldiers took part in the battle with the bandits, and detachments of troops pursued them when they fled.

The dead:
Corporal McBee, Third U. S. cavalry, shot.

Engineer H. H. Kendall, pinned beneath engine.

Dr. E. S. McCain, deputy state health officer at Brownsville, was shot in abdomen and died this afternoon.

The others injured were:
Harry J. Wallis, Brownsville, shot
in arm.

R. Woodhall, fireman, scalded and bruised.

Claude J. Brishhear, troop A Sixth cavalry, hit in the jaw. C. H. Lay, Troop D, Third cavalry, shot in neck,
leg and arm.

The bandits removed the spikes
from a rail and lying concealed in the nearby brush, jerked this rail
from under the nose of the engine with a long heavy wire. The engine baggage and mail and express cars left the tracks. The day coach and smoking car remained on the rails.
No Pullmans were carried and few passengers were aboard.

The robbery was led by five or six Mexicans clad in khaki uniforms and with cheap straw hats, while outside the train about fifteen more Mexicans kept up a constant fire.

A discharged United States soldier appeared at Olmito shortly after midnight and reported the train had been fired upon and that the engineer and several other persons had been killed. The sheriff and a posse started in automobiles, and a special train, carrying two companies of infantry started for the scene. A troop of cavalry left shortly afterwards
and was followed by an automobile truck carrying a detachment of infantry. The first definite information received at Fort Brown said that a band of seventy or eighty Mexicans pulled out a rail from the track and the engine and baggage car went into the ditch. Mexicans then swarmed on the train, it was reported and looted it.

A long trestle half a mile south of the wreck was set afire after the train had been held up, and nearly destroyed. This hindered the passage of troops so that the bandits
had time to flee into the brush.

Passengers who reached here on a relief train early today said that the train was derailed and brought to a stop; that the Mexicans poured into the coaches shouting "Viva Pizano!"
and commenced shooting at passengers.

Pizano, the man bandits were cheering, is supposed leader of the so-called "Texas revolution" organized under the plan of San Diego, which last year contemplated the seizure of the border states and returning them to Mexican rule.

Mexicans severed telephone lines
between Brownsville and Villa Nueva five miles from here, preventing communication with the troops at the scene of the holdup.

After the robbery the Mexicans burned a trestle north of them, which prevented the prompt arrival of United States soldiers sent from San Benito. These troops had to leave their special train and march a mile to reach the wrecked train.

John W. Sword, of Pineville, Ky., a former United States soldier, said
he and three soldiers occupied a corner seat in the front of the smoking car. The other three, McBee, Brishhear, and Lamon, were in uniform. Sword was not hit, he said there was a lurch and all four of them were pitched forward. The train stopped. Five or six Mexicans crowded in at the rear of the coach and came forward firing revolvers. The first firing was directed at the United States army uniforms worn by Sword's companions.

Two of the soldiers were shot at the first fire and Lamon was hit as he fled for the front door. The soldiers were regular passengers without arms. The Mexicans, as they entered, seemed nervous, but grew bold and noisy when the passengers failed to shoot. The third soldier, Lamon was shot first in the leg and then in the neck as he was trying to escape.

In the smoking compartment in addition to Sword and the three soldiers were Dr. McCain, Wallis
District Attorney John I. Kneiber of Brownsville, R. W. Wright, a traveling man of San Antonio.

There were also several Mexicans in their first rush at the uniformed men, the bandits paid little attention to other smoking-car passengers.

McCain and Wallis managed to hide in the lavatory without being observed. Kneiber fell as it shot while Wright and Sauer hid under seats. Sword said the bandits then announced to the several Mexicans in the coach that they need not fear,

that they would not be harmed.

In the meantime Sword sat quiet
but took ninety dollars in bills from his pockets and hid the money under his seat. The bandits came up and asked him if he had any money.

He said "sure," reached in his trouser's pocket and fished out forty cents, saying "take that and bust yourself." He then stood and told the Mexican near him that a woman was badly frightened in the other coach and he must attend her. He brushed aside a bandit and entered the first class coach which he passed through without being stopped. Dropping off the rear end he ran three miles to a telephone.

Sword said that just before he left the coach a well dressed young Mexican, apparently badly frightened,
told the bandits there were two "gringos" in the lavatory. These were McCain and Wallis. Write, had hidden under a seat, and between the feet of two Mexican women, said the bandits knocked on the lavatory door and commanded the men to come out. McCain and Wallis refused, whereupon the Mexicans fired through the door, hitting Mc-Cain in the abdomen and wounding Wallis.

San Benito is the next station
north of Olmito, and has had much Mexican trouble. From Sauer, the San Antonio traveler, the Mexicans took $37 in cash but refused a dollar watch. Wright hid his cash, a small amount, under the arm of a seat, and was not robbed.

The bandits took from the dead soldier, McBee, his shoes. Several of them were farecotted. Doc Washburn, of Brownsville, was with them.

CARRANZA WAS ACKNOWLEDGED MEXICO'S RULER

AT NOON TODAY THE UNITED STATES RECOGNIZED HIS GOVERNMENT.

By the Delivery of Letter From Secretary Lansing to His Representative at Washington.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, Oct. 19.—Formal recognition by the United States of the de facto government of Mexico
with General Venustiano Carranza
as chief executive was accomplished
at noon today by the delivery to General Carranza's representative Eliseo Arredondo at the Mexican embassy of a letter from Secretary Lansing.

Recognition letters from the Pan-American conference similar in tone
also were received by Mr. Arredondo.

Tomorrow Mr. Arredondo will start for Saltillo, Mexico, to meet General Carranza and present to him
the letters and notes of recognition from the several governments of Central and South America, which arrived during the day in accordance with the decision of Pan-American conference yesterday.

Recognition by other nations than those represented in the Pan-American conference is expected to follow
now that the United States has made known its policy. Great Britain probably will be one of the first of these.

Although no final decision has been reached as to the appointment of an American Ambassador to Mexico City, the most likely choice is Henry P. Fletcher, at present ambassador to Chile.

This day was set apart by the diplomatic representatives of the governments participating with Secretary Lansing in the Pan-American peace conference for actual extension of recognition. These countries include Brazil, Chile, Argentina, Bolivia, Uruguay and Guatemala.

All of these nations were to act
in accord with the United States and it was expected that other South American countries, not represented in the conference as well as the European powers will follow suit.

With the form already decided upon by the conferees, all that remained today to complete the act of recognition was the writing of a note
by each of the governments represented, to be presented to General Carranza through Eliseo Arredondo, notifying him of such action.

Mr. Arredondo upon receipt of the note plans to leave here at once for Saltillo to personally convey the note to Carranza.

Following recognition, an embargo
on arms to factions opposed to General Carranza goes into effect immediately.

BETHLEHEM STEEL TOUCHED $500 TODAY; WAS AS LOW AS $25

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Oct. 19.—Bethlehem Steel touched $500
per share on the stock exchange today. Its low price of the year was 46 1-4 made on January 2. In 1914 it sold as low as 29 1-2 and in 1913 at $25.00.

Rumors persist that some stock readjustment of the Bethlehem Steel company is under consideration. It is said that the directors contemplate
an issue of new stock on the basis of 10 shares of common stock for one of the existing issues. It is also said that any readjustment along these lines
will include the preferred shares which recently have shown renewed strength and activity.

SUFFRAGETTES WORK HARD IN JERSEY TODAY

MORE THAN 5,000 WOMEN
WATCHERS WERE EARLY AT THE POLLS.

Both "Pro" and "Anti" Claim That the Election Will be a Decisive Victory for Them.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Newark, N. J., Oct. 19.—The fight for woman suffrage in New Jersey is on today. The polls opened at six o'clock this morning and will remain open until 9 tonight. Suffrage and anti-suffrage workers alike claim victory.

"Votes for women," the former saw, will win by 25,000. Woman suffrage will be decisively defeated,
the anti-suffrage leaders assert.

More than five thousand women
watchers took their places at virtually every polling place in New Jersey today, prepared to challenge voters if necessary and otherwise to guard the rights of their co-workers for suffrage.

The last public plea for votes was voiced in this city at six o'clock this morning, the time for the opening of the polls at the termination of a meeting where feminine speakers had addressed passersby without pause for 24 hours. Heavy-eyed and weary, the speakers went home, their work being taken up by scores of young women in automobiles who went through every section of the city to bring voters to the polls.

Newark and Essex county, in which the city is situated, were the chief battlegrounds.

If women win the ballot, they will have to wait till next year to vote, as today is the last registration day before the November election.

ATHEY MURDER TRIAL BEGINS MONDAY, NOV. 15

Prosecuting Attorney J. W. Horner
today left precincts with Clerk Bert O.
Horton for 36 veniremen for the Chas
Athey murder trial, which probably will begin Monday, Nov. 15. The ve-nueemen will be summoned by the sheriff and after all precincts have been served 15 days must elapse before the trial date. The case no doubt will attract a crowded courtroom while the trial is in progress. Athey with Wilbur Sorrell and David Steffen were indicted for the murder of Patrolman Walter Boscowan, the latter having been shot while the trio was engaged in safe blowing.

Want South Second Street Named as New Market Place; Buena Vista Street Again

South Second street business men between the square and the railroad petitioned council last night to pass the necessary legislation to fix the location as a market street. It is pointed out that the opening of the new market and the fact that transportation facilities are convenient,
make this the logical place for the stands of those dealers who do not have stalls in the market house. The petition was signed by Frank W.
Deininger and fourteen others and was presented to council by Councilman T. E. Adams of the Fifth ward.

The Buena Vista street paving
which has been the bugbear of council for several years, again took the "spotlight" last night when W. O.
Davis and six other property owners
on the street, petitioned council ask-

London, Oct. 19.—Italy has declared war against Bulgaria but the question whether she will send troops to join the British and French forces in Serbia remains as obscure as the results of the fighting raging on Serbia's eastern frontier. The Austro-German armies which occupied Belgrade appear to have advanced more than 15 miles south of the city, but the outcome of the fighting between Bulgarians and Serbians along the important Saloniki-Nish railway cannot be summed up so easily.

At two points, the northernmost
of which is Vranja, the Bulgarians assert they have reached this railroad
while to the south the Serbians are reported to have driven back the invaders. Both Athens and Paris maintain that French troops have occupied Strumitsa in Southern Bulgaria, but there were available no official reports relating to the struggle
in this quarter and none is expected until the fighting reaches a more conclusive stage.

Removal of General Sir Ian Hamilton from command of the Dardenelles forces is received in England with mixed feelings, coming on the heels of rumors of a possible withdrawal from the Gallipoli peninsula.
In the best informed circles, however, the appointment as commander-in-chief of Major General Sir Charles Munro is interpreted as an indication that the campaign will be prosecuted with renewed energy as the country has great confidence in the leaders ability.

Taggart Case Dismissed At Instance of the Prosecutor Who Despaired of Conviction

(Associated Press Telegram)

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 19.—The case against Thomas Taggart, Democratic National committeeman for Indiana, charged with election conspiracy was dismissed by special Judge W. H. Eliehorn in criminal court today on the motion of Prosecutor A.
J. Rucker. The cases of the more than 100 other men who were indicted
with Taggart and Mayor Joseph E.
Bell were put over to December 1.
Mayor Bell was acquitted by a jury
last Wednesday, after a trial lasting more than five weeks.

Prosecutor Rucker, in moving to dismiss the case against Taggart stated that the testimony of witnesses in the Bell case affecting Taggart was much weaker than the testimony they gave before the grand jury. He referred especially to the testimony of Paul Hagen, financial agent of a local brewing company. Hagen, Rucker said, testified before the grand jury that he gave Taggart $750 during the 1914 campaign, which was not accounted for in the report of the treasurer of the Democratic county committee. Hagen, the prosecutor continued, changed his testimony, just before he took the witness stand in the Bell case and there testified that he gave the money to a man at the Democratic headquarters. In view of this change of testimony, Rucker said he did not believe the evidence sufficient to convict Taggart, and for the reason that he did not care to cause any unnecessary litigation, moved to dismiss the charge against Taggart.

When this motion was sustained by Judge Eliehorn, prosecutor Rucker requested that the other cases be postponed until December 1st, to give his office time to clear up the criminal docket and to reorganize
the election conspiracy case.

This motion was also sustained by Judge Eliehorn, who stated that there probably would be other defendants whose cases the prosecutor would wish to have dismissed for lack of evidence. The court then postponed passing sentence of Jas.
H. (Bud) Gibson and Ernest Roeder, who pleaded guilty and testified for the state, until December 1.

Similar action was taken in the

RELIABLE REMEDY RESTORES KIDNEYS

For many years druggists have watched with much interest the remarkable record maintained by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is a physician's prescription. Swamp-Root is a strengthening medicine. Dr. Kilmer used it for years in his private practice. It helps the kidneys, liver and bladder do the work nature intended they should do.

Swamp-Root has stood the test of years. It is sold by all druggists on its merit and it will help you. No other remedy can successfully take its place.

Be sure to get Swamp-Root and start treatment at once.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention the Newark Daily Advocate.

MOONSHINERS' CASE PASSED MONDAY, IS CALLED FOR TRIAL

History of Presentation Brought by Government Against Former Revenue Officers.

(Associated Press Telegram.)

Fort Smith, Ark., Oct. 18.—After a continuance from yesterday, trials of more than a dozen defendants in the "moonshine" whiskey conspiracy cases were to begin here today in the United States district court.

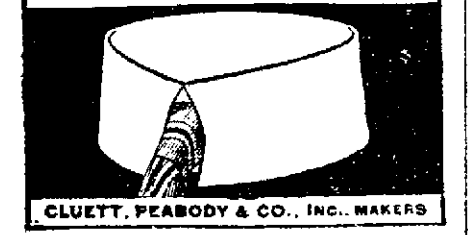

Defendants were indicted on evidence presented by federal agents who declared the government had been defrauded of millions of dollars through the evasion of payment of the manufacturing tax on whiskey.

Knox Booth, of Nashville, Tenn., one of seven former agents in the federal revenue service who were indicted, is expected to appear as a witness for the government. John L. Casper of Kansas City, officer in a distilling company and known as the head of the alleged moonshiner organization, was expected to be one of the first to answer the charges in court. Casper has been under a bond of $25,000.

The defendants brought to trial in connection with the so-called "moonshine" conspiracy number over a score of men, some of whom are former officials of the United States Internal Revenue service. They were indicted by the federal grand jury last June.

The government authorities predict that out of the cases may grow a gigantic prosecution of many other men who, it is alleged, have swindled the government of the United States.

out of between $10,000,000 and $15,000,000 during the last ten years.

The alleged head of the conspiracy is John L. Casper, an officer of the Rush Distilling company of Kansas City, who with Guy L. Hartman of Kansas City, James C. Brewbaker of Fort Smith and others are charged with maintaining an illicit distilling at Fort Smith and with shipping thousands of gallons of spurious whiskey, manufactured at the plant, to the distilling company.

The six revenue officers are named with other defendants in a blanket indictment for conspiracy and one of them, Knox Booth, is accused of accepting bribes from Casper and Hartman. Booth was formerly superintendent of the Tennessee Revenue division and was removed from office after the issue of the warrant for his arrest. Government officers say he confessed and gave valuable information as to the working of the alleged conspiracy.

The other revenue men indicted were:

James Sarber, Atlanta, Ga., former superintendent of the Georgia Revenue division; resigned shortly before his indictment.

Thomas C. McCoy, Asheville, N. C., former revenue agent; resigned from service five years ago.

S. L. Williams, Winston, Salem, N. C., former revenue agent; resigned several years ago and became associated with Casper in the distilling business.

J. Henry Brown, Harrison, Ark., former government gauger; still in government service when arrested. Newton C. Spradling, Aurora, Mo., former gauger; resigned when arrested.

Others indicted were:

John Farrabee, George Hartman, and Charles Brewbaker of Kansas City; John Coffey, Fred Bowles, and J. M. Thomas of Fort Smith; James L. Smith, Jacksonville, Fla.; Henry Cummings, Wheeling, W. Va.; Wm. Smith, Tampa, Fla.; and Leo F. Brock, Ed. P. Jarrett, Ernest Sumner, J. W. Grider and C. M. Hawkins, addresses unknown.

Government officials did not have to ride into wooded hills inhabited by rough men of the "moonshine" type to uncover the "still," where it is alleged the illicit liquor was made. They found it standing boldly on one of Fort Smith's streets—a dilapidated old building, as innocent looking as some deserted Arkansas farm house. But inside, machinery modern to the minute, the government alleges, manufactured "Six Year Old Kentucky Bourbon," "Fine Old Private Stock," and "Seven Year Old Rye," from pure alcohol in fifty bottles, the sparkle and blend being given by means of chemicals. With the aid of attractive labels, the government alleges, the conspirators sold their products through agents in Kansas City to the southwestern retail trade.

The Fort Smith plant once was a legal distillery. In March, 1914, however, its owners advised the revenue department at Washington of their intention to cease business. The government immediately withdrew its official gauger and sealed the doors of the plant.

The seals, it is alleged, were soon broken, the old machinery removed and new machinery set up.

One day the government officials got an anonymous letter that started an investigation. David A. Gates, deputy internal revenue commissioner, took charge of the inquiry. His men quickly covered Missouri, Arkansas, Georgia, North Carolina and Tennessee, and picked up clues here and there, which finally resulted in the seizure of the distillery. Among the discoveries they made was that the plant was connected with a large sewer, with outlets so arranged that the contents of its eight ten-thousand-gallon tubs could be discharged into the Arkansas river within a few minutes.

Six indictments in all were handed down, the first charging Casper, Guy L. Hartman, J. C. Brewbaker, Williams, Brown, and other defendants with intent to defraud the United States of the tax imposed on distilled spirits and with having in their possession cancelled revenue stamps.

Casper in the second indictment is charged with paying Booth a bribe of $1,000 in connection with the removal of 25,000 gallons of whiskey

Pains Often Mean Uric Acid Poison

Pay Attention to Pains—Most People Have Rheumatism and Don't Know It.

Ouch! Does it hurt to move your muscles? Be careful and take heed in time. Rheumatism is stealing on you and may cripple you if you don't stop uric acid from settling in your veins and muscles.

Rheuma, a great specialist's prescription, chases this poison out of the system and gives relief from all forms of idiosyncratic h. t. h. a. r. o. forms of Rheumatism. It acts through the seat of the trouble, the kidneys stop the formation of uric acid, then drives out through the bowels, which is the blood.

Genuine Rheuma (see that you get the trade-marked package) is sold by T. J. Evans and all druggists for 50 cents. Money back if not satisfied.

from the distillery without payment of the internal revenue tax. This offense is alleged to have occurred when the place was still a legal distillery. The third indictment charges Booth with accepting the bribe and also one of $500 from Guy L. Hartman.

The fourth is a blanket bill charging conspiracy against the six revenue officers, the two Hartmans, Charles Brewbaker, and others. It describes purchases of supplies alleged to have been used in distilling, mentioning the names of many Fort Smith firms as having sold the products. The City of Fort Smith sold 2,000,000 gallons of water to Guy L. Hartman. It is charged, for use in the plant. In this indictment, also, is specified the alleged shipments of whiskey to the Rush Distilling company, and alleged fraudulent marking of liquors to indicate that it had been inspected by Brown.

The fifth charges Casper and Guy L. Hartman with the illegal rectification of distilled spirits.

The sixth covers operations by the M. B. Brock distillery in Fort Smith—a separate concern from the Brewbaker distillery. It alleges violations of a date much earlier than those charged against the Brewbaker plant, but names, together with Moses B. Brock, several of the same alleged conspirators.

Do You Feel Headachy? Look to Your Stomach

It is an unusual thing for a druggist to sell medicine under a guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. Yet this is the way T. J. Evans, the popular druggist is selling Mi-o-na, the standard dyspepsia remedy.

Never before has he had so large a number of customers to tell him that a medicine has been successful as with Mi-o-na. People who a few months ago looked like walking skeletons have put on flesh and today are ruddy and vigorous with perfect digestion and good health.

There is no longer any need for anyone suffering or making their friends suffer on account of dyspepsia. Mi-o-na can always be relied upon. The percentage of cures is so great that there is little risk to T. J. Evans in guaranteeing to return the money if the medicine does not relieve. And he stands ready to do so without any questions.

Headaches, all forms of indigestion, specks before the eyes, dizzy feelings, poor sleep, ringing in the ears and all forms of liver trouble are helped by Mi-o-na. A few days' treatment should show considerable gain in health while a complete cure often follows rapidly.

These are the best in the whole year for the enjoyment of good health, and Mi-o-na will put you in such perfect condition that you can enjoy every minute of them.

CRISIS

Hamilton from the Dardanelles, and the succession of command of a young leader, General Sir Charles Munro, may be significant of a policy of bringing in new blood. Most of the generals holding high commands are more than sixty years of age, and there has been complaint that the army is clinging to the old policy of promotion by seniority alone, while naval officers in high positions average more than ten years younger.

The Irish Times (Dublin), commenting on the events of the day says:

"We make two inferences. One is that the Dardanelles campaign is not going to be abandoned. The other is that in this quarter, and we hope in all other quarters, the war is going to be prosecuted with new vigor and purpose."

Justice Scott's Court.

John Gounley was arrested by Special Constable Charles Moore of Justice Scott's court on a peace warrant charge preferred by Bert W. Boner. His hearing will occur Friday.

A West End merchant was brought into court on a cruelty to animal charge, the warrant having been subscribed by J. P. Harris, agent of the local humane society. The former was given a nominal fine and costs and promised not to repeat the offense.

The case against Harry Smith of Pittsburgh, charged by the Warden Hotel company with obtaining money under false pretense, was settled today by the defendant and the case was dismissed.

Damage Suit Filed.

Thomas B. Pegg has filed a petition in common pleas court against Frank M. B. Windle, asking damages in the sum of $5,000, alleging that the defendant struck the plaintiff with his automobile while the former was crossing the street from the court house pavement in North Park Place. Plaintiff in this petition stated that the accident occurred on September 30, 1915, and was caused through the carelessness and improper driving of the defendant, and that as a result he will be permanently injured and crippled.

Wednesday's Court.

Judge T. B. Fulton Wednesday will hear five cases in criminal court, they being the State of Ohio vs. Harry Lindner, John Rusnak, alias John Jones, and Elmer Street, Earl Rine and Murray D. Hilly. All of the indicted men are charged with penal offenses against the state statutes. Judge Harry Jewell, also holding court in this city, will hear a case in equity, that of Charles W. Bourner vs. The Homestead Building and Savings company.

Care of the Complexion And Other Beauty Secrets

The soft, velvety complexion is the envy of every woman—and any woman can reveal in one to her heart's desire if she will only use the powders and paints and give her complexion a little care. The most beautiful peach-like complexion I ever saw was that of a southern lady, and she told me this is the way she got it and kept it every night before retiring, she washed her face, neck and arms with plenty of soap and warm water, then used cold water and dried thoroughly with a coarse towel; then she massaged into the skin a cream lotion that she made herself by dissolving one ounce of powdered zinc oxide in a pint of hot water, adding a tablespoonful of glycerine. She said that she honestly believed that this treatment made her sleep well and she always awakened so refreshed and she certainly looked it.

Nothing mars a good complexion like hideous blackheads, and if women can get rid of these, they will get rid of them, there would be very few faces with these blemishes on them. If you are one of the unfortunate, just get about two ounces of powdered neoxon from your druggist, sprinkle a little on a hot, wet sponge, rub briskly over the blackheads and wash off. You will find that every one has a nice complexion entirely.

A nice complexion and dull, lifeless, thin, scraggly hair do not fit, so if you have any of these hair troubles and you don't want them to detract from your complexion, you would do well to give your hair some attention. No better hair treatment is possible than to use a simple quinine hair tonic that you can make by mixing half a pint of alcohol, half a pint of water and adding one ounce of betaquinol. COURT DATES SELECTED BY FOUR JUDGES

Judges Harry Jewell of Delaware, W. S. Hanna of Millersburg, Edwin Mansfield and T. R. Fulton of this city met in the courtroom of the Licking county courthouse this afternoon and set the time of holding court in Licking, Delaware, Holmes and Richland counties for 1916. Common pleas court will convene in this county next year on January 3, April 3 and September 11.

MISSION CIRCLES MEET IN HANOVER

A district meeting of the Home and Foreign Missionary Societies of the Zanesville Presbyterian church is being held in the Presbytery church at Hanover today.

These meetings are held semi-annually at the various points in the Presbytery, and the meetings at Hanover today will undoubtedly have a large attendance. About 35 women members of the organization went from Newark on the early morning trains. Among the speakers on the program is Mrs. Grant Jones of this city, a returned missionary from India.

SMOULDERING LEAVES CAUSE OF ANNOYANCE

If fallen leaves must be burned, and it is conceded that this is the most effective way of getting rid of them, Newark people are asked to see that they are burned, and not allowed to smoulder, sending out great clouds of dense smoke which is offensive and particularly annoying to people suffering from hay fever, severe colds or other disorders of the respiratory organs.

This is the word sent out by city officials. Attention is called to it at this particular time because attempts will be made to burn leaves soaked by recent rains, before they have dried sufficiently to burn readily. As a result much smoke is sure to smoulder. The leaves, in most cases, smoulder until late in the night disturbing the rest of those in good health.

The fall of leaves has been particularly heavy in the past few days. Better than burning the leaves, is the practice followed by many Newark people of using them on the garden where they are allowed to rot, or in flower beds or foot litter in chicken coops. They are particularly valuable for the latter purpose. The scratching of the busy hens soon pulverizes the leaves and when placed on the garden or in flower beds, the small particles are quickly rotted in the soil, making an excellent fertilizer.

She Knew Better.

HOW SHE ENDED TEN YEARS OF SKIN-TORTURE

Oct. 28, 1914: "I had eczema on my face for ten years. Little red pimples formed in a small spot on my chin and then spread all over my face. They itched and burned me awfully. It was certainly embarrassing to me, and I would not go amongst people. I tried almost every remedy and treatment that could be used for this trouble, but nothing did me any good. I used Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap, and was relieved in a day or two. In one month I was cured. This was six months ago and the trouble has never returned." (Signed) Mrs. C. C. Roberts, Weatherford, Okla.

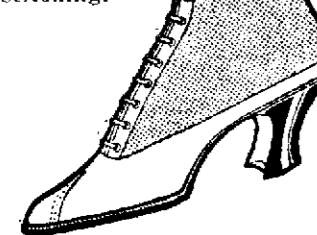

The Resinol treatment speedily heals eczema, rashes, ringworm, and other eruptions, and clears away disfiguring pimples and blackheads, even when other treatments prove worse than useless. Doctors have prescribed Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap for eighteen years, and all druggists sell them.

CURE CORNS BY PENETRATION

They Lift Out in Two Days—Dr.
Hunt's New Discovery. ONLY 10c.

Now your corn must go. Dr. Hunt's new penetration method rids you of that troublesome old corn while you walk. No "bundling" up your toe. No corrosive liquids to dry up or to smart, burn, or cause blood poisoning. No special directions.

Dr. Hunt's New Corn Cure comes in easy-to-apply form. Just stick the plaster on your corn, and the plaster does the rest. Then leave it for two days. You can go on wearing your regular everyday shoes. In two days lift out the corn root and branch. Your corn will be gone for good, for Dr. Hunt's great discovery works by penetration. No pain or discomfort whatsoever while a cure is being effected.

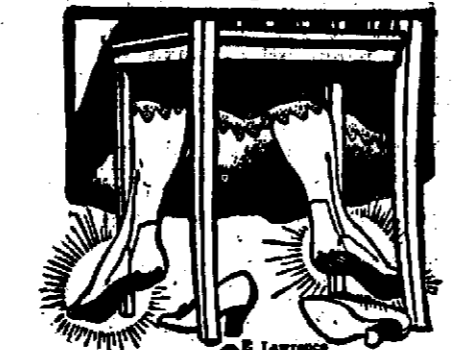

Whether your corn is a new-corn or an old-timer, just ease it and cure it by the penetration method—Dr. Hunt's new way. A box costs only ten cents. Guaranteed or money refunded. Don't accept substitutes when such a sure cure awaits you Dr. Hunt's way. For sale by all druggists and shoe dealers. Or send ten cents in stamps to American Chemical Company, Sidney, Ohio.

Large box containing 20 plasters, 25c.

G-E-T-S-I-T Alone for Corns

It's Standard with All Good Druggists.

Note this, G-E-T-S-I-T is the way the name of the world's greatest corn remover is spelled. Don't take a chance with some preparation made up with a name which resembles "GETS-IT." Get "GETS-IT"—nothing else. When you buy a bottle of "GETS-IT," the world's wonder for corns, you have right back of you Stop Misery and Embarrassment Like This With Simple, Easy "GETS-IT." The happy experience of millions of "GETS-IT" users. You don't have to experiment. Nothing new for corns has been found since "GETS-IT" was born. All conscientious druggists know it. Millions of people know it.

Applied in a few seconds—that's all. The corn begins to loosen, comes off, painlessly, without fussing or trouble. Toes made into fat bundles with bandages, corn-pulling cotton rings, corn-pulling salves, corn-teasing plasters—are out of date. Cutting with knives, files, and razors and the danger of blood poisoning are done away with. Try "GETS-IT" tonight for any corn, callus, wart, or union. Never fails. See that you get "GETS-IT" and nothing else for corns.

"GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

Sold in Newark and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by T. J. Evans.

jointly indicted with Gilbert Haffer for breaking into a B. and O. freight car, and stealing several watermelons. Ralph Best was placed upon trial and the court and jury heard the evidence. A verdict of guilty was returned by the jury.

Divorce Petition.
Della McCoy has filed a petition in common pleas court against Claude McCoy and asks that the B. & O. Railway Co. be made a party defendant. Claude McCoy being in the employ of that corporation. The petition recites that plaintiff and defendant were married Jan. 25, 1912, and for cause of action alleges that defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty; that on Jan. 15, defendant struck and beat her and that he has also been guilty of adultery; plaintiff alleges that he is employed by the B. & O. railway and earns 21 cents per hour. She asks that the company be enjoined from paying him money due him, that she be divorced and granted reasonable alimony.

ington, a negro chauffeur, hid beneath a seat but the Mexicans saw his feet, stole his shoes and also his grip and he claims $95 in cash. Sword left his hat and coat hanging on the window. Returning, he found his hat and coat were gone, and he says $280 in the coat pocket, which went with the coat.

Doc. Sterritt, negro porter on the train, was one of the first to reach a telephone after running three miles in his stocking feet. His shoes had been taken.

During the smoking car shooting passengers in the day coach behind either crowded under seats or sheltered themselves as best they could against death from a chance shot from wild firing by the bandits outside the train. After finishing in the smoker, the Mexicans robbed the day coach passengers, most of small amounts of money and jewelry.

Held Up and Robbed Two Freight Trains in New York.

[Associated Press Telegram]
New York, Oct. 19.—Six armed men held up and robbed two freight trains and attempted to rob an American Express train on the West Shore railroad at the entrance to a tunnel between Congers and Haverstraw, N. Y., early today. After loading an automobile with packages taken from the two freight trains, the bandits escaped.

Arriving at the mouth of the tunnel in an automobile, the robbers tampered with the wires controlling a signal and caused the light to show red. This halted the first freight train and as it stopped the hold-up men appeared behind the locomotive and covered the engineer and fireman with revolvers. They then fired open several freight cars and selected such packages as they wanted, loading them into their automobile. They then ordered the engineer to proceed.

The second freight train was held up and robbed in a similar manner. When the American Express train stopped at the red signal the robbers neglected to station a man at the locomotive and all of them went back apparently with the intention of breaking into one of the cars. As soon as they were out of sight the engineer opened the throttle and started up the train. The looted trains were stopped at West Haverstraw, the next station north from the scene of the holdup and the crews gave the first news of the robbery. An electrician who was sent from Congers to repair the damage to the wires discovered the bandits opening the packages. He was awed by a display of revolvers.

Sheriff Serven of Rockland county and others attempted to pursue the fleeing robbers in an automobile, but were able to trace them only as far as Hackensack, N. J. The New York police were notified to be on the watch for the party at all the ferries crossing the Hudson river. They detained one party of youths returning from a club meeting in New Jersey, but soon released them.

The Family Look.
No eloquence of tongue, nothing that stands written in any book, may sway the heart as does that elusive quality—the race mark in a face. And this is true less of the obvious physical aspect than of its thousand secret connotations. All the world knows the Hapsburg lip, the jaw line of the Bonapartes, the subtle marks of clausophobia that keep their eloquence for their own. Consciously or not, each family group stands before these symbols as the small company of the learned might before some inscription on a desert ruin. Mere strokes and scratches to you and me. To the few who understand here is the key that unlocks the past.

So the family look. In the arch of an eye orbit, the curve of chin, we read the signature of race. Chance imprint maybe, maybe seal of some struggle so profound as to have set our lips at this particular angle, or through dimming attenuations to perpetuate a gesture born a thousand years ago in joy or in some stark agony of body or of soul.

The family look. The first we remember; the last we shall forget—Elizabeth Robins in Harper's Magazine.

Fathers and Children.
"In the earlier years," says Pastor Charles E. Jefferson in the Woman's Home Companion, "children can be controlled by their mother, but by and by there comes a time when they begin to note the conduct of the father. No eyes are keener than the eyes of a child. He sees everything the father does. He reflects on what the father does not do. His logic is inexorable. He argues his way to conclusions which cannot be shaken."

"If his father does not pray, prayer must be unnecessary. Grown men surely know what is needed. If his father never reads the Bible then the big book can be dispensed with. Fathers know what books are most worth reading. If he does not go to church then church attendance is a pastime and not a duty, for men so old and wise as fathers is would not neglect church if church were of value to them."

Tactful Man.
"I must say these are fine biscuits!" exclaimed the young husband.

"How could you say those are fine biscuits?" inquired the young wife's mother in a private interview.

"I didn't say they were fine. I merely said I must say so."—Washington Star.

Belgium's Military Cross.
The croix militaire of Belgium is an award founded in 1885 by Leopold II. It consists of two classes; the first is awarded to officers of twenty-five years' service, the second to noncommissioned officers and men who have served a similar period.

An Unhappy Client.
"Prisoner, have you anything to say?"

"Only this, your honor: I'd be mighty sorry if the young lawyer you assigned to me was ever called upon to defend an innocent man."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Rheumatism
A Home Cure Given by One Who Had It

In the spring of 1893 I was attacked by muscular and inflammatory rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who with terribly aching and even bedridden with rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case.

I was very much surprised to find that many of our people are suffering from rheumatism, and I am sure that many of them are suffering from it who do not know it. I am sure that many of them are suffering from it who do not know it. I am sure that many of them are suffering from it who do not know it.

Workmen's Compensation.

Opponents of workmen's compensation in Ohio who thought they had everything their own way with the Willis administration compliance have been brought up with a jolt by the proffer of Former Governor Cox to lead a fight to protect the law by constitutional inhibition against the writing of employers' liability insurance. In Cleveland, the home of the referendum frauds attempted by the liability companies, they are again starting a campaign to mislead the people. The honest competition of private compensation insurance companies is not of issue for the simple reason that the private company cannot write insurance nearly as cheap as the state, and further because at the same rate the state fund would be favored by employers because money spent for premiums stays in the state, whereas when it is paid to the foreign company agent about ninety per cent of it goes to New York or to Europe. Resistance is now to the Taggart ruling which permits employers' liability companies to compete with state insurance by offering employers indemnity compensation claims and by insuring them against the consequences even of their own "wilful" acts. Also in question are acts of the present state administration toward the destruction of all that has been accomplished for the cause of labor after more than thirty years of effort.

Owing to the fact that the president of one of the war stock companies has bought a new automobile, the speculators will now be able to put up the price of the stock 20 points.

Greatest of Massacres.

(New York Independent.)
The most extensive, the most atrocious of religious massacres which the world has seen for centuries is now being perpetrated in Turkey. It had seemed that the measure of her iniquity was full. Almost before she had had time to get over the first intoxication of her revolution which promised liberty, equality and fraternity to Moslem, Christian and Jew alike, the massacres of Adana and the vicinity occurred. But now the fury of slaughter has spread from the Mediterranean to the Caucasus. This is no frenzied dream, but the authentic fact.

Slabaugh or Bigbee, Which?

The American Tribune which shocked the Republican organization, astounded the candidates and enraged Sheriff Swank and his friends by making an absurd attack upon ex-Sheriff Slabaugh's clean record, finally found words last night to tell what it meant by assailing the Democratic candidate for mayor, Frank E. Slabaugh.

Boiled down to a few words it is this. The Tribune argues that because Mr. Slabaugh has recently held a good county office it is unbecoming for him to aspire to be mayor of Newark. The paper is peeved because Mr. Slabaugh didn't wait longer before seeking office.

The Advocate has shown that the figures published in the opposition paper to show how "wealthy" Mr. Slabaugh has become are erroneous in that they include large sums which Mr. Slabaugh expended for jail expenses, prisoners' food, etc., during his term of office. At the same time the Advocate has stated that Sheriff Swank during his entire term of office has drawn from the county treasury a much larger sum than was paid to Mr. Slabaugh during the corresponding period a year ago. This, however, is not a county campaign.

Very foolishly the Tribune, in the absence of its editor, assailed Mr. Slabaugh for using his earnings in "taking an ocean trip" and in buying a home and farm property. No one ever doubted that the sheriff's office is worth while and if Mr. Slabaugh had retired from office without a few dollars to his credit he would have been a very poor business man. To his credit it may be said that he saved some money and his good judgment directed its investment in real estate.

The Tribune's agitation over Mr. Slabaugh's investment and the deep concern it expressed over the source of his bank account naturally caused some inquiry as to his opponent's business career but this inquiry has been carefully ignored by the Tribune. We infer that the Tribune doesn't care to pursue that phase of the question further. If that is the case, perhaps our esteemed contemporary will be willing to enter into a discussion of the qualifications of the two men, Slabaugh and Bigbee, for the office of mayor. How about it?

Newark School Board Election

There are nine Newark men who aspire to membership on the Newark Board of Education but six of the nine are doomed to defeat.

The present board consists of William C. Christian, president, James K. Dewey, clerk, Seth W. Haight, William E. Miller and Dr. Willard C. Rank. The terms of Dr. Rank, Mr. Dewey and Mr. Haight are about to expire but Mr. Christian and Senator Miller will remain members of the board for two more years. Three new men are to be elected from this list of nine: Messrs. G. W. Avery, C. E. Comer, J. K. Dewey, S. W. Haight, Frank L. Johnson, Benj. Montgomery, Benj. Hendricks and C. L. Riley.

In an election to membership upon a board where three are to be elected upon a non-partisan ballot, it is not necessary that politics should enter into the selection at all, even to distinguish the candidates for the benefit of those wishing to vote. In the case of an office to be filled by one man like the mayoralty, political designation is almost necessary, unless the city has a special charter, and thus far is the only practical manner in which aspirants for the position can be placed before the voters.

In the school election the names will be placed upon a ballot without party designation as is the case with the judicial ballot and the voters of Newark, including 1364 women, whose names are enrolled upon the registration books, will choose the three men for membership on the board.

The Advocate will soon publish sketches and pictures of the nine candidates. This newspaper will tell who the candidates are, what they stand for and will quote what any of them may have to say for publication. In this way the men and women of Newark will have an opportunity to judge the situation fairly and with all the facts before them should be able to select three men who are well equipped for membership on the school board. May the three best men win!

Autumn
Autumn is the time of the year that we now have.

Therefore it is unpleasant to many people. Its good points will not be distinctly visible till next spring. Human beings wear their far-away specs when they hunt things to be glad of.

They see them when it's too late to get the full benefit of them. Some people call Autumn Fall. That is in recognition of the habits of the leaves of deciduous trees of that time of year.

Trees know when Fall is. They keep their calendar on the loose-leaf system. When the leaves loosen, winter is coming.

Seeing the approach of cold weather, they kick the covers off and invite the borean zephyrs to zeph their darnedest.

Autumn is the time for burying cabbage in the garden. Cabbage is better in the winter if it is not embalmed before burial. Autumn is also the time when the frost is on the pump. O very well!

Much-Stolen Stuff.
Among the stolenest verses we know are the lines of Eddie Guest's, of the Detroit Free Press (which somebody once wrongfully called the D. F. Press) entitled, "He Did It." The lines begin, "Somebody said it couldn't be done." At last that chief thief of the universe—London Titt-Bits—has credit for it.

The Temptation.
"Let him that is without sin," quoted the annoying hypocrite, "cast the first stone at me!" "For the first time in my life," muttered a husky observer, "I find myself really hankering for sinlessness!"

In days of old, when knights were bold, They wore tin suits that tinkled; And it could rain with might and main, But those suits never wrinkled. Jackson (Mich.) Patriot.

But oh, the pain, when after rain The sun its beams did thrust. There was no oil, there was no foin To take away the rust.—Us.

Rippling Rhymes

COOL NIGHTS.
The summer night's a total loss; we go to bed and kick and toss, and groan and shriek and pray; we wallow on our beds and weep, in vain—we cannot get to sleep until the break of day. And then the milkman comes along and whangs his large and strident going, the errand newboys scream, the grocer's man is at the door, and all the wheels of traffic roar, and spoil the morning dream.

But in the fall how well we rest! When I've removed my shoes and vest, and to my couch I go, I find myself at once asleep, enjoying rest profound and deep, the kind that children know. For seven hours or so I snooze, refreshing weary gall and thews, from grief and care aloof; if you would wake me in the night, you'd have to bring some dynamite, and blow me through the roof. And in the morn, at half past five, I wake, so glad that I'm alive, that I must sing and dance; I sing and whistle, sound and hale, as I put on my martingale, by shirtwaist and my pance. Take all your poisons, dope and pills, and throw them in the babbling rills; they are no use to men; when one can sleep for seven hours, that little nap restores his powers, and makes him young again. WAIT MASON.

Kochendorfer—Hollingshead.
On Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, Rev. T. H. Haller, pastor of St. John's Evangelical church, officiated at the marriage of Mr. Jacob Kochendorfer and Mrs. Sarah L. Hollingshead.

McCahon—Hawthorne.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized in Utica on Monday evening when Miss Kathleen Hawthorne was married to Mr. Paul McCahon of this city. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, and was read by Rev. Mr. Merger, pastor of the Presbyterian church. The bride was gown in an ivory tinted gown, and was attended by Miss Deck of Utica. The bridegroom's best man was Mr. Charles Harris of this city. A wedding dinner followed the service and Mr. and Mrs. McCahon left for a wedding trip to the exposition in California.

The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. McCahon of Hudson avenue and is a telegraph operator in the employ of the B. and O. railway company.

Schenk—Fisher.
The wedding of Miss Christine Fisher and Mr. Frank Schenk was solemnized on Thursday evening, October 14 by Rev. Father Ruane, at St. Francis de Sales church. They were attended by Miss Frances Swartz of Fremont, O., and Mr. Henry Schenk, brother of the bridegroom. After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents in Dewey avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Schenk are at home at 290 Union street.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Peppers entertained with a dinner party on Sunday evening, honoring the bridal party of the Schenk-Fisher wedding. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schenk, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schenk, Sr., Miss Frances Swartz of Fremont, and Mr. Henry Schenk.

The first meeting of the season of the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club is being held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. S. Wright in Eddy street.

Mrs. Louis Heaton entertained on Monday evening at her home in West Main street in honor of her son Edward's birthday anniversary. The rooms were decorated in the colors of red and yellow. At a late hour the guests were invited to the dining room where the birthday cake illuminated with twenty candles, made a most effective centerpiece. The hours were devoted to games and music and a delightful informal time was enjoyed. The guests numbered twenty.

The regular monthly meeting of the Greeners Sunday School Class of the Fifth Street Baptist church was held at the home of Mrs. A. N. Dodd on Central avenue Friday. After a short business session, the evening was spent in playing games. The following members were present: Letitia Long, Helena DeFord, Ethel Palmer, Amy Wheeler, Theima Johnson, Mary Mayer. One guest was present, Miss Marie Dodd. It was decided to hold the next meeting at the home of Mary Mayer on Eleventh street on Nov. 12.

Mrs. William Keckley will entertain the members of the Alpha Sewing Club on Wednesday afternoon at her home 639 Evans street.

Mrs. James Cooper is entertained with a bridge party this evening at her home in Charles street, honoring Mrs. Trevor Davies.

Mrs. Hilda Wiebel entertained with a miscellaneous shower on Monday evening at her home in Jefferson street, honoring Miss Ada Young, a bride to be. The hours were informally devoted to games and music and the following were the guests: Miss Young, Mrs. Homer, Mrs. Wilfred Jones, Mrs. John Leonard, Mrs. William Rice of Cumberland, Md., Mrs. Jennie Brown, Mrs. Gertrude Applegate, Mrs. T. B. Smouse, Misses Anna Murphy, Cleo McDonald and Miss Mary Beiber.

Mrs. Mae McAlpine of 173 South Pine street entertained with an announcement party on Monday evening announcing the marriage of Miss Grace Marvin and Mr. Paul Walters, the wedding having taken place on September 11, and the announcement has just been made.

The McAlpine home was prettily arranged with autumn leaves and at each place at the table were miniature kittens, which were thought to ribbons bearing cards which were hidden in the basket of flowers in the center of the table. The cards read:

Every Woman Should Know

There are three entirely different kinds of baking powder, namely:

- (1) Cream of tartar, derived from grapes;
- (2) Alum, a mineral acid; and
- (3) Phosphate of Lime.

(1) Baking Powders made of Cream of Tartar add to the food the same healthful qualities that exist in the ripe grapes from which Cream of Tartar is derived.

(2) Baking Powders made of Alum add to the food some form of Alum or Aluminum, a heavy metal, wholly foreign to any natural article of food.

(3) Phosphate of Lime is made from rock or by burning bones which by chemical action are changed into a white, powdered acid. It is used in baking powder only because it is a cheaper substitute.

A Cream of Tartar powder never contains Alum or Phosphate.

Every housekeeper should read the names of the ingredients printed on the label and know what she is using.

Mrs. Fiske as "Becky Sharp."

Mrs. Fiske is once again to be seen in her famous role of "Becky Sharp" in the recently completed Edison masterpiece, "Vanity Fair," released through the Kleine-Edison Feature Service and booked as the stellar attraction at the Alhambra Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, October 20-21.

Mrs. Fiske played the role throughout the country precisely one thousand times. Her one thousand first portrayal has been registered by the motion picture camera, thus preserving one of the most interesting stage figures that the theatre of America has known.

Mrs. Fiske's "Becky," because of its individuality and ingenuity of characterization, ranks with Edwin Forrest's "Lear," Joseph Jefferson's "Rip Van Winkle," and Richard Mansfield's "Cyrano de Bergerac." Those splendid figures of the stage now live only in the memory of the older generation of playgoers. It is one satisfaction to know that Mrs. Fiske's "Becky Sharp" is to be saved by the magic of the film.

As soon as the fact that Mrs. Fiske was to appear in a pictured version of "Vanity Fair" became known, the actress began to receive letters from her personal friends among college professors, literary men and women, artists and critics, evidencing the greatest interest in the enterprise and commending it in the highest terms. Some, however, of Mrs. Fiske's correspondents concluded their letters with the query: "But what would Thackeray think of it all?" To this question Mrs. Fiske replies:

"I have no doubt whatsoever that Thackeray would be most highly delighted could he but know that his characters of 'Vanity Fair' were to live again on the cinema screen. He was, in high degree, an author whose vital interest lay in the people about him; in the foibles and fancies of his day. To such a man, at this time, the new medium would make a strong appeal."

William Cominsky of Columbus is looking after business interests in Newark today.

Miss Marguerite Kureth of Hoover street returned on Monday evening from a four weeks' visit with friends and relatives in Pittsburgh. Mrs. William Rice of Cumberland, Md., is visiting Mrs. Hilda Wiebel at her home in Jefferson street.

Miss Rose Doan, A. Henrietta Jordan, Mr. Emmet Mattingly, Mr. Louis Mattingly of Newark, and Mr. J. White McCammon of Denison University spent the week end at "The Homestead" the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Mattingly of near Granville.

Mrs. Harry Martin and children of South Second street, who have been visiting friends in Illinois, have returned home.

How She Acquired "Feminine Charm"

A nicely dressed woman sat beside me in the train. Everyone stared at her. It was not her beauty of feature that held our eyes, nor her costume, but there was something about her face and expression that drew us. "Would you mind telling me how you keep your complexion so daz- zlingly pure? Don't think me imper- tent, but you seem over 30, yet haven't a line in your face, and your cheeks are quite peach-like. How do you do it?"

Laughing, she said: "That's easy; I remove my skin. Sounds shocking, doesn't it? But listen, instead of cosmetics I use only pure moricized wax, procurable at any druggists. I apply this nightly, like cream, washing it off in the morning. This gently absorbs the soiled, weather-beaten film-skin, without pain or discomfort, thus revealing the fresh, clear, unadorned. Every woman has a beautiful complexion underneath, you know. Then, to get off wrinkles, I use a face lotion made by dissolving powdered sorbelle tone ounce in one-half pint witch hazel—a harmless 'astorinoid' which tones the skin wonderfully. Very simple, isn't it? I thought so. I'm now trying her plan and like it im- mensely.—Millicent Brown in The Story Teller.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by using a local remedy. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, unless you use a local remedy, which can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be restored. Granville

[Special to The Advocate]

Granville, Oct. 19.—The young people of the Baptist church and their friends, spent a very delightful evening in the church parlors Oct. 16. Games were played and refreshments were served.

Sunday was temperance rally day in Licking county. A very strong temperance sermon was preached in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning by Rev. E. D. Barnes which was very enthusiastically received by a large body of listeners. About one o'clock one division of the flying squadron from Newark arrived here and held open air services, consisting of songs and two short speeches. Many automobiles from Granville joined the Newark crowd and went to the county limit.

Mrs. Shook of Newark, Ohio, is visiting her son Lee, who is a Dentist, in town. While in town she is stopping at the Wartenbe home.

Miss Carrie Howland is spending a few days with friends in Columbus.

Rev. Calvin Hazlett of the First Presbyterian church in Newark filled the pulpit of the Granville church Sunday evening, while the pastor, Rev. Barnes was assisting in the work of the flying squadron.

The regular meeting of the Travelers' club was held in the parlors of the Baptist church Monday afternoon. As Mrs. Stickney, the president is in attendance at the Federal meeting in Toledo, Mrs. Mary N. Jones, second vice president presided. After the routine business, a program of unusual interest was given. Mrs. Anna L. Campbell gave the opening paper, "Along the Coast." Mrs. Campbell gave her paper from her own personal experience, making the topic one of great interest and showing many relics gathered while in Alaska. After a short intermission the topic "The Copper River Region" was treated under two heads. Mrs. Speicher giving as her topic "The People" and Mrs. David Gilmore treating it from the standpoint of "The Interests." Both papers showed careful study and deep thought and they held the close attention of the club women to the end of the meeting and proved very beneficial.

The Phi Gamma fraternity is to be congratulated on two social functions that have afforded great pleasure to their women friends. On Saturday evening the girls of Shephardson were entertained with a Halloween party, refreshments being in keeping with this holiday season. Monday afternoon the women of the town were entertained with a formal reception. The beautiful old colonial home was artistically decorated with rich autumnal colors in crepe paper while chrysanthemums decorated the table in the spacious dining-room and carnations were distributed as favors.

The Newark district meeting of the Zanoville Presbyterian is being held in Hanover today. The Gran-

Quickest, Surest Cough Remedy is Home-Made

Easily Prepared in a Few Minutes. Cheap but Unequaled

Some people are constantly annoyed from one year's end to the other with a persistent bronchial cough, which is wholly unnecessary. Here is a home-made remedy that gets right at the cause and will make you wonder what became of it. (Get 2½ ounces Pinex (50 cents worth) from any druggist, pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Start taking it at once. Gradually but surely you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether, thus ending a cough that you never thought would end. It also loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals the inflammation in a painful cough with remarkable rapidity. Ordinary coughs are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, winter coughs and bronchial asthma.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup mixture makes a full pint—enough to last a family a long time—at a cost of only 54 cents. Keep it perfectly and taste as pleasant. Easily prepared. Full directions with Pinex.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in gum-resin, and is famous for its use in the treatment of colds and the world over for its ease, certainty and promptness in overcoming bad coughs, chest and throat colds.

Get the genuine. Ask your druggist for "2½ ounces Pinex" and do not accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

My First Visit to Grand Army Hall

Following is a composition under the above heading which was read at the open meeting of the Grand Army, Sunday afternoon by Frances Stock, aged eleven years of the Sharon Valley public school:

"A few days since when my little brother and I were coming from the library, we met Mr. Scott, who asked us if we would like to see Grand Army Hall; and as I had never seen it, I was very glad to go.

"The first thing I saw on entering the room was a very large Bible which was on a stand in the middle of the room. There I saw two large American flags which looked very bright and gay.

"On the walls were the pictures of many brave soldiers who had done great deeds. Those that I remember were Washington, the father of our country, Abraham Lincoln who set the negroes free and Grant, one of the Northern generals. Then we entered one of the smaller rooms, and in it were guns and bullets like those that were shot in the civil war and also bullets that were shot into tree trunks and had been cut out.

"I saw also an old-fashioned lamp and a candle mould in which the melted tallow was poured around the wick to make the candles that were used so many fifty years ago.

"After I came down from this interesting room I thought how glad we ought to feel that our country is not now in war, and when I see the old soldiers march again I will be more interested and will feel proud of them than ever before, and I will think of the hard, brave things they did that our country may be as it is today.

Music

Walter Bentley Ball, the Newark baritone, who has had a very successful career for some years in concert work, gave a recital last night in the Second Presbyterian church, and the pleasure given the audience was genuine and unstinted.

Mr. Ball's improvement of late has been little short of wonderful. It is not the place in this short notice of his recital, to enter into the details which have made up the totality of this improvement, for it has been along every line, and to the extent that he is now a finished concert vocalist.

An increased sonority and volume was noticeable, which has been attained without any sacrifice of quality. The method of tone production has been developed so that throughout the compass of his voice, he sings without the least effort to cover any harshness or other inherent defects.

Mr. Ball last night showed good taste in the selection of his program in this respect, and the numbers, while covering a wide range of vocal possibilities, were, without exception, within easy accomplishment.

Another feature of his singing which was favorably commented upon, was the distinctness of his enunciation, most gratifying to an audience, and always characteristic of the well instructed artist whether the song be in English, Italian, French or German. Not having the words before us of several of the songs, in a foreign tongue, and not possessing a linguistic equipment that includes the latter three dialects, it is incumbent upon us to give the verdict of one who knows. This artist after the concert said: "Mr. Ball's French, German and Italian diction was most excellent." The reviewer will vouch for the English.

Mr. Ball last night showed conclusively that he sings because he loves to sing. His temperament is of that nature. In each of his songs was displayed an intelligent comprehension of the relativity of tone values, and each phrase was given the proper proportion of emphasis in tempo and dynamic force.

His appearance is graceful and devoid of annoying mannerisms which so often detract from the enjoyment of audiences.

This notice should not close without giving due credit to Miss Sabina Hirschberg, who presided as accompanist at the piano. This talented woman possesses a musical intuition which makes her playing of accompaniments an aid to the soloist, adds to the enjoyment experienced by the hearers, and gives an artistic finish to each number. This was true of her playing last night.

The last two numbers were sung with pipe-organ accompaniment, the latter being excellently executed by Miss Florence M. King.

Rev. J. P. Franklin announced that a silver offering would be taken for the benefit of the Public Library, and paid Mr. Ball a high compliment for his thoughtful and unselfish act in giving the recital in his home town for such a worthy cause. This sentiment found echo in the minds of the entire audience who felt grateful for the opportunity of hearing a Newark musician of such unquestioned merit, and at the same time aid the Newark Library.

The Newark High School Entertainment course will open Friday evening, October 22, with Evan Williams, the great Welsh singer, as the attraction. He has been heard by many Newark people who will be glad to again be given the opportunity of listening to his charming songs and ballads, while those who have not heard him should not miss a rare treat.

Jane Tuttle and assistant artists will give two song recitals in Taylor

Hall, November 22 and 23 (Monday and Tuesday), under the auspices of Philomena S. Wehrle Tent No. 25, Daughters of Veterans.

WANT SOUTH SECOND ST.

consider the offer of W. D. Callahan, who seeks to give the city land for the extension of South Sixth street. The committee also recommended a site at German and the proposed Isabelle road, as the location for the new South Newark fire station recommended by a committee several weeks ago. The committee told council that the questions relating to the proposed paving of the alley between the Rutledge and Jones buildings, from South Park to the new market house, had been received and filed.

The service director in a communication, told council that progress was being made on the work of grading and repairing streets but called attention to the fact that Newark had enough unpaved streets to reach from this city to Columbus and that it required considerable time and money to make repairs on all of them.

Director Christian also submitted a report of the waterworks department which has been in the city's possession as a revenue producer, for five years. His report follows:

On October 1st, we have operated the entire water works system for a period of five years. I thought it would be of interest to make a report for this period. Christian Science Lecture Given by Prominent Member Of Cult on Monday Evening

Mr. William R. Rathvon, member of the Board of Lectureship of the First Church of Christ Scientist, in Boston, gave a most interesting and instructive lecture on Christian Science at the High School Auditorium on Monday evening.

A large audience had assembled and the stage was beautifully arranged with a profusion of summer flowers. John Sherwood Flock, in the following words, introduced the speaker of the evening:

"Christian Science, by reason of its rapid growth, its proof of healing, and the fact that it is bringing peace and happiness to many a weary heart, is today engaging the attention of great numbers of people throughout the civilized world. The general public feels the need, therefore, for accurate, reliable, information regarding the principle of its teaching. And this, to meet this need, the Christian Science churches in all parts of the world, from time to time, give such lectures as the one you are to hear this evening. Our lecturer is a member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, and comes to us fully qualified to speak on the subject of Christian Science."

"I take pleasure in introducing to you Mr. William R. Rathvon of Denver, Colorado."

A Christian Science lecture, like everything connected with Christian Science, is constructive. It is designed to build up, not only to pull down. It takes nothing away from anyone without giving something better in its place. So I have not come to attack, or ridicule any one's religious beliefs, or any one's system of medicine.

Nor is it part of my mission to point out to you in detail the dangers that lurk in certain mental systems that are sometimes classed with Christian Science, but which are no more related to it than darkness is related to light; such as will-power, hypnotism, mesmerism, auto-suggestion, thought transference, telepathy, spiritualism or any of the cults or schools that rely wholly or in part upon the influence of the human mind or human will upon another. Christian Science acknowledges and admits the existence of evil, but one mind and this Mind is God, the source of all good in man and the universe.

A Christian Science lecture, however, is not to be regarded as a complete exposition of the whole of Christian Science. The limited time assigned prevents consideration of many of the essentials to right living that have made it the greatest protective, restorative, and modern reformative agency of modern times.

But all these things, and more, are fully set forth in its text book, "Science and Health," with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, and this book I would commend to every one who would learn for himself at first hand the truths and practices of Christian Science. A copy may be obtained through any Christian Scientist. How comprehensive and inclusive is that book may be seen when I name to you the headings of some of its chapters, as follows: "Marriage," "Christian Science versus Spiritualism," "Animal Magnetism Unmasked," "Science, Theology, Medicine," "Physiology," "Footsteps of Truth," "Creation," "Science of Being," "Some Objections Answered," "Christian Science Practice," "Teaching Christian Science," and "Revelation."

In referring to her authorship of the text book, "Science and Health," Mrs. Eddy has said the following: "I am her only guide and authority. It is she who adhered to it, and it is she who by the fact that a soul is saved, and health leads to a state of peace and joy. No other religious denomination comprehends so large a proportion of life's students."

It is perhaps unnecessary to inform this audience that the discoverer and founder of Christian Science was a woman, Mary Baker Eddy. You may know, too, that for years she labored alone and unassisted, but always undaunted and undismayed, offering to an unwilling world that which she knew from the first would ultimately bless all mankind, healing the sick and reforming the sinner.

Start the Day Aright. Every day in Christian Science is made up of twenty-four hours of immense possibilities for good, and it rests with each individual to determine for himself how much of good he gets out of it. The self-willed, self-seeking man works to control events to suit himself, so that the results of events, whatever they may be, cannot disturb him. The demonstrating Christian Scientist is no longer disturbed by the recurrence of things which formerly made him what we asked Him to give us. The prayer that brings the child closer to his Father, that brings man closer to his God, the divine Principle of his being and leaves him there, is not a barren one, whether it was uttered in the silence of one's thought in the sanctuary in the noisy street, on the rushing train, or on the rolling sea. Neither time nor place can restrict the prayer of unselfed love, for, after all, love for God and man is the essence of prayer. Coloridge has truly said:

"He prayeth best who loveth best All things, both great and small. For the dear God who loveth us He made and loveth all."

Saint James tells us the prayer of faith shall save the sick. What may we not expect then of the prayer wherein there is not only the abundance of faith, but also of understanding, wisdom, spiritual power and, above all, of love? Every Christian Science treatment, built up of these elements of righteousness, heals the sick and comforts the sorrowing.

The Open Door.

In a majority of cases, the man who comes to Christian Science for physical or mental healing does so only after he has exhausted all other promising methods of relief. The last of pain drives him to it, the fear of death drags him to it. He comes often reluctantly while protesting his unbelief in what he thinks he will be expected to believe. But he has learned of cases seemingly hopeless as his own that have been healed in this strange way, and he has been urged by his friends to try it. They tell him that it cannot harm him, and that it may heal, so with an air of mingled desperation, resignation and incredulity, he appears before the practitioner with little hope and less faith, and with a sense of surrender that would be amusing if it were not so nearly tragic.

The man who feels his own unworthiness, his own unfitness to attain a higher, better and more spiritual life, has nothing to apprehend from Christian Science.

It makes no distinction, it imposes no restrictions upon man or class of men more than upon another. The devout churchman, the hardened sinner, the incredulous agnostic, the degraded and depraved, the sick and the well, alike are welcomed to all it offers.

No man ever finds it closed against him because of his past record or early misdeeds. Where there is an earnest desire to know God and to live in accord with this knowledge there is always an open door waiting in Christian Science.

It does not parade a man's past mistakes and present failures before his gaze or hang them like millstones about his neck. It does not peer into the closets of any man's past, but opens wide the door of present opportunity for doing good.

It does not ask of the beginner how much of wrong have you done in the past, but how much of right are you ready to do now. Not how many mistakes have you made, but how earnest are you in resolving to make no more.

Reformation.

Reformation in Christian Science is reformation, being formed over. It is not an affair of words. It is not a mere declaration of intent. It is not only an avowed purpose, but a continuous development. It is not only laying down old tools, but taking up new ones. We are reformed only when we are formed anew, retaining all we ever had of the good and discarding that which is evil. It is a combined process of elimination and growth, which proceeds progressively and continuously. In this true reformation we leave behind things that are harmful, but take on things that are beneficial. Many men hold back because they feel that in order to go forward in Christian Science they must sacrifice too much. It is not merely sacrifice that is expected, but growth. The earnest beginner is not torn away from things harmful, he grows away from them, hence desire to return to them is gone forever. He does not give them up, they give him up when he resolutely strives to put them down.

Christian Science destroys harmful habits by destroying the harmful causes that form them. Back of every wrong habit is a wrong desire, and Christian Science heals the wrong habit by destroying the wrong desire. The hard drinker may assure you that he does not like the taste of liquor, but he longs for its effects, and that longing, that desire is what enslaves him. You may break his bottle into a thousand pieces and spill every drop of the evil-envenomed stuff into the gutter, but that does not break the desire. Christian Science does not break the bottle, the man himself does that, but it breaks the desire for the bottle, and this is true reformation.

What it is that Heals.

Answering then the eager question that is uppermost in the mind of the man who is turning to Christian Science, "What is it that does the healing?" let us say to him that it is the power of the divine Mind practically applied to beliefs about the human body and to the affairs of men. Let us assure him, too, that it is the influence of divine Love operating in human consciousness. Does this satisfy him? Does he quickly grasp the deep significance of the words "divine Mind"? Does he comprehend, even in a degree, the nature of God's love? Not very often.

Let us see what can be done towards aiding the beginner to a better understanding of the healing power of divine Mind. Let us begin by saying a little to him about the human mind, an entirely different thing.

Mind's Control of Body.

All intelligent persons agree that a man's mind influences his body to a greater or lesser degree, they only differ about how far this mental influence extends. All agree that excessive worry, fear, anger and other mental extremes, are familiar causes of physical disorders. All will admit, for example, that a man may worry himself sick, that excessive fear may produce weakness, and that a violent outburst of anger may cause physical collapse. But how far other forms of bodily derangements are to be attributed to mental causes, authorities do not agree. Just where the vague line should be drawn which the doctors say exists between the mental and material causation is a matter of dispute among doctors themselves. One school of medicine maintains that only so-called functional diseases are mentally produced, while another more progressive admits that certain forms of elementary organic disorders may have a mental origin.

Here Christian Science enters the arena and boldly declares that the human mind is to be held accountable for every discordant condition of the body; not only in cases where its action is direct and apparent, as in those just named, but where its operations are remote and obscure and are only discernible by those trained in the study of mental causation.

Then arises a throng of questions by the beginner, typical ones being: "How about the sickness of an infant, whose mind is undeveloped?" or "How can a man's mind be the cause of his pain when he has swallowed something in his food that he did not know was harmful?" It is not the mind of any one individual that causes the mischief, but the minds of all mortals—mortal mind, in other words. It is this mortal mind which has decreed that certain physical effects will follow certain causes. It is this mortal mind that has laid down many of these trouble-making laws about the physical body and the material world where it claims to have complete control. It holds its subjects in a grip of iron, and sickness, pain, distress, sorrow and misery are the results. It is a dictator, a tyrant, a despot and the human body is its obedient servant.

Yet it may be stripped of all its assumed power and aggressiveness and be reduced to nothingness.

Knowing God.

If, at this stage of his enlightenment, it is explained to the beginner that a right knowledge of God, divine Mind, is essential to his progress, he naturally asks, "How am I to learn to know God, divine Mind that His benign influence may harmonize my troubled life and heal this ailing body that gives me so much distress? How am I to understand the laws under which he operates? Who is to teach me?"

Jesus of Nazareth was not only the greatest physician, but also the greatest teacher the world has ever known. He taught men to know God, and now, as then, man's great need is a right understanding of God and His law.

Most men know so little about God as Life, Truth and Love, supreme on earth as in heaven, that they think they can get along just as well without such knowledge as with it. Yet there is nothing within the range of human consciousness that is more essential to man's happiness, wealth and true success.

Right Ideas of God.

We will then ask the beginner to set aside for the time his inherited and impeding beliefs about God, and to consider the teachings of Christian Science about God, good, the God, whom Jesus taught men to know.

Let us explain to him that God is Love; that God is Mind; that He is Spirit; the infinite Principle of being that He is Truth, that He is Life; that He is omnipotence, omniscience, omnipresence. Do these definitions of God quickly appeal to a man who has always thought Him as a finite personage subject to the limitations of time, space and circumstance? Perhaps not. But let us propose as an aid towards a fuller comprehension, that he choose from among these definitions the one which most nearly approaches his conception of the highest possible good, and let his thought dwell upon that. Let him ask himself, "Can God be no higher than his conceptions of good, but they should always be that high."

If the thought of God as Love, ever blessing, never condemning; ever healing, never afflicting, including all mankind in His fatherly protection and infinite affection; if this thought of God comes to you with tender appeal, hold fast to it and cherish it. It will unfold and enlarge and develop, and gradually lead you to a yet broader, fuller knowledge of Him as Love, divine.

Or is it the thought of God as Life, "The Life that knows no death; The Life that maketh all things anew"; the eternal source of all being; of health, of growth, of vitality; of development and unfading youth; that touches a responsive chord in the consciousness of the man who is seeking a better knowledge of God. If so, let him sound it deeply and it will swell into a diapason of grandeur and harmony and inspiration.

Or perhaps he may best comprehend the Christian Science idea of God as Principle, the divine First Cause and Creator, the sustainer, actuator and underlying Principle of the universe who operates through unchanging laws, always beneficent and always comprehensible.

There are many who readily grasp the idea of God as Truth, the Truth which makes men free from every lie, of sickness, want, woe, misery, deficiency or tribulation. The man to whom this larger thought of God appears may add to it a new factor, growing away from his sense of limitation or lack of confidence, or restricted opportunity. Not only does it bring to him liberty, but ability to do things that make for individual progress, growth and true success in commercial, professional, industrial and domestic life.

Perhaps the beginner in Christian Science may more readily comprehend God as omniscient Mind, possessing all knowledge, all science, all intelligence, all understanding, the Creator of man and the universe, of all that really exists. The man of God's creation, the real man, reflecting these qualities of infinite Mind, does not lack wisdom, acumen, perception, tact, judgment nor perspicacity. He need never be in doubt, nor conjecture nor wonder. He has no occasion to court luck nor chance nor fortuitous circumstance. No problem can be too profound, no situation too complex, no research too vast for the man who habitually turns to infinite Mind, the fountain head of all knowledge, for his guidance and direction.

We are sometimes asked by the man who is considering the claims of Christian Science with an open mind, "Is there any great difference between Christian Science and other Christian denominations. So far as I can see, Christian Scientists believe much the same as we do. We have the same Bible and believe the same truths, and I can see no reason why I should go outside my own church to get Christian Science. Tell me one fundamental truth wherein they differ. Are they not identical in all essentials?"

There are a number of points of divergence and a fundamental one is the Christian Science belief in the omnipotence of God. The Christian Science church not only teaches that God is the only power, as other churches teach, but it also insists that its followers put that teaching into practice. This means that they are expected to deny by thought and deed that evil, the opposite of God, has any power or actuality. With them this is not a mere doctrinal theory or an empty assertion, but an actuating, animating truth. To declare that God is omnipotent and at the same time admit that evil has the power to confer pleasure or to cause pain is to say one thing while believing another. It is in effect saying that God is the only power while believing that He is not.

It is sometimes wrongly alleged that in thus denying the reality of evil, Christian Science confers a license to sin. Never was there a greater mistake. When a man gains an understanding of the unreality of sin, he no longer turns to it for pleasure or flees from it in fear. This understanding of the unreality of evil is attainable only as we gain an understanding of God as the only reality.

Is Sickness Real?

A necessary step towards getting free from the influence of any kind of a deception is to know the truth about it. A lie that is believed is as tangible as the truth itself, but when you know it is a lie you are free from its control.

Jesus proved in His ministry on earth, and Christian Science is today substantiating that proof, that just in proportion that a man gains and applies a right understanding of God, the divine Truth which denies that reality of all things evil, in that proportion does he break the hold of sickness and sin.

Or in the language of our text book (p. 178), "We disarm sin of its imaginary power in proportion to our spiritual understanding of the status of immortal being."

If any of the foregoing Christianly scientific concepts of God find a welcome in the secret places of your thought, dwell upon them, that you may abide under the shelter of a higher, holier life. Each one of them is more precious than pearls or rubies. If you will invite them all into your consciousness, you will have your own that which you will soon prize above wealth or position, or power or any of the things the world can give you and for which you have worked and hoped and planned all the days of your life.

In the text book, "Science and Health," there may be found an answer for every vital question the beginner may ask. It is well for him to remember that every helpful, scientific thought that may be given him, either by teacher, practitioner or fellow-Scientist, appears somewhere in the pages of "Science and Health." That book contains all of Christian Science and it is a wise man who turns to it and the Bible first for the answer to his questions rather than to any human interpreter.

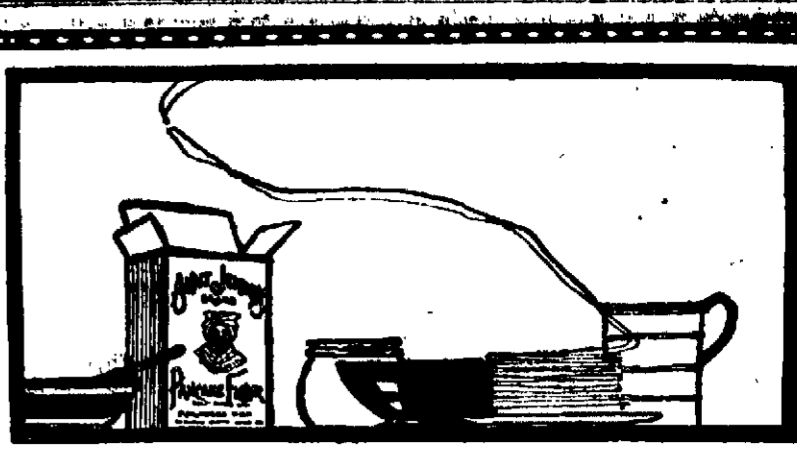

Let him never be deceived by the suggestion that "Science and Health" is hard to understand, or that it is an easier way to learn Christian Science. If this suggestion comes to him, let him see it as an attempt of evil to divert and delude him. Let him remember that Science and Health is different from any other book he has ever read, and therefore is not to be measured by the same standards as any other book. It is not only to be read, but to be studied, and its teachings applied as rapidly as understood. It is not merely a garden of roses, but a field of grain. It is a storehouse of spiritual food from which we are to take that which we need for each day.

It may be truly said that nine people out of ten submit to discouragement without resistance because they do not know any better. They do not know that it is not only bad, but dangerous. They do not know that it is a mental intruder, a moral nuisance that should never be tolerated, but always shunned as one would infectious disease.

It is bad because it is full of deceit. It is a great big fraud. It tricks a man into believing he is a failure, when success may be waiting for him just around the corner. It deludes him until he sees things crooked and believes about himself and others things he knows are not true. It robs him of his ability and mumbles into his ears the awful lie that God has forgotten him.

Discouragement is a dangerous because it is the entering wedge for the evil thoughts that will produce evil deeds. It is the devil's favorite tool, unrecognized as such by so many, and resisted by so few. It is a noteworthy fact that outside of Christian Science the are but few who shun discouragement as they would sickness, adversity or failure, yet it opens the way for all of these and worse.

Now the man who is holding his thought steadfastly to the things that are enduring and good and true is discovering that Christian Science is offering to everyone an antidote for the poison of discouragement that is swift in its operation and positive in its effects. It is something that cannot be bought with money, yet is as free as the sunshine and as blessed as the summer's rain. It is called gratitude.

Do you know, my friends, that gratitude quenches the smoking fires of discouragement as the ocean does a spark? And here let me say to you that there is not a man on this green earth today but who can find something for which to be grateful to God, for if he will hunt for it honestly and earnestly, and when found give it a place in his heart, he will see discouragement vanish like a bat into the night.

The man who is learning to know God has gratitude with him always, hence discouragement makes no long visits to his mental household.

Good Always Constructive.

No two thoughts, one good and the other evil, can prevail at the same time in a man's consciousness. It is as impossible as it is for two diverging lines to meet. Good is always the positive, evil the negative; good the constructive, evil the degenerative; good the real, evil the unreal.

Every good thought held reverently and steadfastly will improve, develop and multiply and bring others of its kind.

Naturally the beginner will ask what things are specifically commended upon which to fasten constructive thought, what are the things that are enduring, good and true. The two text books of Christian Science, the Bible and "Science and Health," are replete with the things of God, and to Him belongs and from Him proceeds all things that are enduring, good and true. In Philippians, 4-8 that great demonstrator of right thinking, Paul of Tarsus, indicates a number of helpful subjects about which thought may be profitably centered. He there says, "Whatever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report, if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things."

From the various writings of the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, Mary Baker Eddy, have also come many helpful aids to right thinking. In a short letter, written to her students some years ago, Mrs. Eddy names two cardinal elements of right thinking. The opening sentence reads: "Beloved Christian Scientists, keep your minds so filled with Truth and Love, that sin, disease and death cannot enter them." (Miscellany 210).

Right thinking, then, leading to right acting, not only brings us what we need, but protects us from the things we most dread, and is effective in every walk of life and available to every type of man. It may be claimed that this scientific thought control is not an easy thing to bring about. Granted. But it is a possible thing and it is a thing that is constantly being done by the beginner, as well as by the experienced worker, and is an essential, though elementary form of right procedure in Christian Science.

It is only possible, however, to him who understands in some degree the allness of God and the nothingness of every thing or thought which does not proceed from infinite Mind.

And with that understanding comes a consciousness of God's protection.

Landed Big Fish.
Mr. and Mrs. John Keifer autographed near Frazeyburg Sunday and after enjoying a picnic tried their hands at luring game fish out of the Wakonika river. Mrs. Keifer, who is an expert angler, landed a six and a half pound muskellunge while Mr. Keifer had to be satisfied with a four and a half pounder. The fish were beautiful and were exhibited to many admiring friends Monday.

Trio Bound Over.
Joe Moore, George Russell and Thomas O'Boylan, charged with stealing a motor cycle from Benton Moore Saturday night, were arraigned in police court this morning on charges of grand larceny. Police Chief Sheridan arrested the men Sunday with the motorcycle. They were bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $300 each.

Broke Three Windows.
On an affidavit signed by "Jack" Myers of East Newark, police last night arrested Leo Frazier on a charge of destruction of property. The affidavit alleges that three panes of glass were broken in the Myers home. Frazier was fined $10 and costs in police court this morning. Two drunks drew fines of $5 and costs each.

The announcement came as a great surprise to the many friends of Mr. Harrington in this city. He is the son of the late Dr. Charles Harrington, and has been located in New York City as private secretary to Archibald White, also a former Newark man.

SIMPLE REMEDY FOR CATARRH
Just Breathe Hyomei Four Times a Day and Be Relieved.

If a few years ago some one had said you could treat catarrh by breathing air charged with a healing balsam, the idea would have been ridiculed and it remained for that eminent investigator, R. T. Hyomei, to discover in Hyomei this wonderful method of treatment.

Hyomei has performed almost miraculous results in treating catarrh and is today recognized by thousands of people as the only advertised remedy for catarrh that can be relied upon to do just what it claims. The complete outfit of Hyomei is inexpensive and consists of an inhaler, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei.

Breathe the air of Hyomei through the little inhaler drugists furnish with it for a few minutes four times a day and it will help the worst case of catarrh. It soothes and heals the mucous membranes of the air passages, prevents irritation, and effects complete and lasting relief.

In Newark there are scores of well known people who have been relieved of catarrh by Hyomei. If it does not help you T. J. Evans will return the money you paid for Hyomei. This is the strongest evidence that can be offered as to his faith in the remedy.

ASQUITH ILL; DOCTOR ORDERS COMPLETE REST
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Oct. 19.—Premier Asquith has become suddenly ill. His state of health will require withdrawal from public activities, at least for a few days.

Shortly before one o'clock the following bulletin was issued at Downing street.

"The prime minister is suffering from an attack of gastro-intestinal catarrh which will necessitate a few days' complete rest."

Earlier in the day, Mr. Asquith attended meetings of the war committee and the cabinet, both of them held in his official residence.

The Sure Cure.
"Have you tried," said the sweet-voiced lady, "being more affectionate with your husband, to prevent familiarity with stenographers?" "Sure," said the woman with the iron jaw. "I told my husband that if he fooled with any slip of a girl, I'd be more affectionate than I ever had been, and he's been a model husband without a single dictagraph record against him."

His Unpopularity.
"Why is Binkins so unpopular?" "Because he always has his hair cut on Saturday nights."

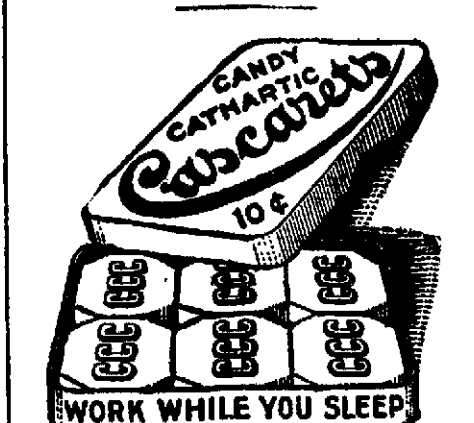

Mrs. McGranahan and granddaughter Marian Mohr left Wednesday for Freeport, Pa., to spend a few days visiting Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ralston and family.

YOUR BILIOUS! CLEAN LIVER AND BOWELS TONIGHT

DON'T STAY HEADACHY, SICK, OR HAVE BAD BREATH AND SOUR STOMACH.

WAKE UP FEELING FINE! BEST LAXATIVE FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

Enjoy life! Remove the liver and bowel poison which is keeping your head dizzy, your tongue coated, breath offensive, and stomach sour. Don't stay bilious, sick, headachy, constipated and full of cold. Why don't you get a box of Cascarets from the drug store and eat one or two tonight and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. You will wake up feeling fit and fine. Cascarets never gripe or sicken like salts, pills and calomel. They act so gently that you hardly realize you have taken a cathartic. Mothers should give cross, sick, bilious or feverish children a whole Cascaret any time—they act thoroughly and are harmless.

PRESIDENT WILSON CAST BALLOT FOR WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Princeton, N. J., Oct. 19.—President Wilson came to his legal residence here today and voted for woman suffrage.

The president was greeted at the station here by a large crowd of students. He walked immediately to the old fire house where the polling booth of his precinct is located.

News from the Dictionary.
We'll bet a bottle of Irid must that you never knew that if a groom gave a bride her wedding outfit of clothing, it wouldn't be a trousseau. The Standard Dictionary tells us it is a bride's outfit of clothing, "prepared at her own or her family's expense."

These Children!
"Billy, what'll I do? I've swallowed some putty, and I've got an awful pain!"

"Well, you'll just have to keep the pain, Josie! That's what putty's for—to make pains stay where they're at—right inside your sash!"

The State of Maryland.
The extra "r" in the heading was intended, gentle reader, and was put there after we had found that anybody going to that state can get a marriage license without difficulty, and that the license fee is only a dollar.

A WOMAN DOCTOR
says, "Eugenics is a necessary factor in the future of the race. The average American girl is unfit for motherhood." This may be true, but if weak and ailing girls passing from girlhood to womanhood would only rely, as thousands do, upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—that simple remedy made from roots and herbs—to restore the system to a normal healthy condition, it would cause many ills from which they suffer to disappear, so that motherhood might become the joy of their lives.

OPEN NOSTRILS! END A COLD OR CATARRH
How To Get Relief When Head and Nose are Stuffed Up.

Count fifty! Your cold in head or catarrh disappears. Your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more snuffling, hawking, mucous discharge, dryness or headache; no struggling for breath at night.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and apply a little of this fragrant antiseptic cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothing and healing the swollen or inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Head colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable. Relief is sure.

MAPLE AVENUE C. U. CHURCH IS TO CLEAR DEBT

A very enthusiastic meeting of the men of Maple Avenue Christian Union church, was held in the church last night at 7:30. Plans were adopted to rid the church of debt, and this morning fifty men are at work raising funds to lift the mortgage, and burn it at an early date. The women of the church seeing how enthusiastic the men are, and not wanting to be left out of the campaign of raising funds, have called a mass meeting for tonight to organize and get busy also.

Fine Healthy Child Convincing Evidence

Simple Inexpensive Remedy Checks Early Tendency to Constipation.

About the first thing impressed on the young Mother is the necessity for regularity in her baby, which brings up the question of the most desirable laxative for children's use.

Mrs. Jesse Richardson, Philpot, Ky., says she has used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for the past year and that there is no medicine in the world like it. She writes, "My little son, William, Jr., just loved it because it is so pleasant to take, and everybody talks about his being such a fine healthy boy."

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a compound of simple laxative herbs, free from any opiate or narcotic drug, and is the standard remedy for constipation in thousands of homes throughout the land. Drug Stores everywhere sell it for fifty cents a bottle. Get a bottle of this excellent remedy, and have it in the

NEWARK STORE IN WINDOW CONTEST; $7,500 IN PRIZES

The Stewart Brothers & Alward company has entered the International Window Display contest which Edison Diamond Disc Jobbers' Association of the United States and Canada will conduct during Edison Week, October 18-23. Each window entered in the contest will contain a display of the Edison Diamond Disc—Thomas A. Edison's new invention for the recreation of sound.

The conditions of the contest have been ingeniously framed to bring about a good contest. The following is quoted from the conditions circulated by the Jobbers' Association: "The jury's decision will not be influenced by the number of instruments displayed but by the attractiveness and impressiveness of the display, and in particular by the graphicness with which are presented the superior and distinctive musical qualities of the Edison Diamond Disc Phonograph and its special features, such as the permanent diamond reproducing point, the non-wearing and unbreakable records, etc. The fact that the Edison Diamond Disc Phonograph and record give a laboratory recreation of music, as opposed to a mere mechanical reproduction, and that the Edison Diamond Disc Phonograph has no tone of its own (proven by tone comparisons with the living artists), are features that should be emphasized. The jury will pay no attention to the shape or size of a dealer's window. In other words, the dealer with a small window will have just as good a chance as the dealer with a big window. The awards will be based on the originality of the idea and the effectiveness with which it is carried out in the arrangement of the display."

The Stewart Bros. & Alward Co.'s window was ready last night. Wagner & Mueller took a photograph of it. The window is entered for the prizes offered for Edison dealers in this state and also for the championship prize that is to be awarded for the best display in the United States and Canada.

SERBIANS OFFER RESISTANCE TO TEUTON ADVANCE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Paris, Oct. 19.—The Serbians are offering stout resistance to the Teutonic advance in the Semendria section, according to information from Nish received by the Journal. A wireless message sent by the Austrian general in charge there to Field Marshal von Mackensen and intercepted by the Serbians is said to be as follows:

"Impossible to accomplish my task successfully unless you send heavy reinforcements immediately."

It is reported that a Bulgarian regiment refused to fight against the Serbs at Kadiogazir near Kniagetz and killed its colonel. The regiment, it is said, was surrounded and decimated by the rest of the division.

SUFFERED YEARS OF TORTURE, CURED IN ONE MONTH

Many Cases Suffering for Years and Thought to be Incurable, Now Being Healed.

A prominent citizen of Alliance, O., writes: "For years I suffered with eczema on my face. One leading druggist recommended Anolox. I bought one box of ointment and two bottles of the liquid and one cake of soap. After a month's treatment I am certainly cured. It has been several months since using it and my face is perfectly smooth, with no sign of a return of the trouble. John Hodgson, 936 Noble St., Alliance, O."

AMOLOX, the new scientific prescription for the relief and cure of skin diseases, now at leading drug stores. The trial dose, T. J. Evans will refund the money if it fails to do what we claim for it. Send postal for free sample to Anolox Laboratories, Youngstown, Ohio.

GREECE FOLLOWS BALKAN STRUGGLE WITH INTEREST

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Paris, Oct. 19.—A Havas Agency dispatch from Athens, dated Monday, quotes the governmental newspapers Neos Asty as saying that the Greek government is following with the greatest interest the development of military operations on the Serbo-Bulgarian frontier in proximity to Greek territory. The recent council of Greek ministers adopted measures to be taken in the event that these operations bring the Bulgarians into Greece, an eventuality which the paper says, the government will not tolerate.

Every Home Needs a Faithful Cough and Cold Remedy.

When seasons change and colds appear—when you first detect a cold after sitting next to one who has sneezed, then it is that a tried and tested remedy should be faithfully used. "I never wrote a testimonial before, but I know positively that for myself and family, Dr. King's New Discovery is the best cough remedy we ever used and we have tried them all." 50c and $1.00.

Canada's population now exceeds 8,000,000, according to a recent estimate from Ottawa.

CAPTAIN WARDEN A NEWARK MAN

In writing to a Newark friend, Captain F. G. Warden, now in Sioux City, Iowa, says:

"I have never lost my interest in Newark and have a kind and pleasant recollection of my early days and am still as you know a resident of Newark. I cast my first vote and the last vote I cast last year in the same ward all my life and never intend to change my residence."

Capt. Warden recently purchased his fourteenth hotel. He is now operating five hotels in Iowa and nine in other states.

WORK BEGINS ON 16 SUBMARINES AND SIX DESTROYERS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Oct. 19.—Construction was ready to begin today for the largest number of ships ever awarded by the navy department at one time. These contracts which have just been let by Secretary Daniels, call for the construction of sixteen submarines and six destroyers at a total cost of $1,923,433.

Four destroyers are to be built at private yards one each at the Norfolk and Mare Island Navy yards, respectively, fourteen submarines are to be built at private establishments, and two at navy yards.

The contracts call for delivery of the vessels in from 18 to 20 months. All of the destroyers will have a minimum speed of thirty knots an hour, and a displacement of 1,125 tons each. They will each have a battery of four 4-inch rapid-fire rifles, two anti-aircraft guns, and four triple torpedo tubes to discharge the heaviest and largest torpedoes now built.

The submarines will have surface and submerged speeds of 14 and 10 knots respectively, with a displacement of 750 tons. Each will be equipped in addition to torpedo tubes, with a three-inch disappearing rifle for surface shooting.

The Next Best Thing to the Pine Forest for Colds Is—
Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey which goes to the very root of cold troubles. It clears the throat and gives relief from that clogged and stuffed feeling. The pines have ever been the friend of man in driving away colds. Moreover, the pine-honey qualities are peculiarly effective in fighting children's colds. Remember that a cold broken at the start greatly removes the possibility of complications. 25c.

Nine out of ten persons have this dread disease

Pyorrhea—the most general disease in the world—is the disease you should be guarding your teeth against. It is caused by a germ which is found in every human mouth.

Thousands have already lost some or all of their teeth from this disease; in thousands it has reached the stage of bleeding gums and loose teeth; in thousands of others the germ, unsuspected, is just starting its work of destruction. Start today to guard your teeth from the dread results of this disease by using a corrective and preventive treatment in your daily toilet.

To meet the need for such a treatment and to enable everyone to take the necessary precautions against this disease, a prominent dentist has put his own prescription before the public wrapped around every tube. Symptoms described. A 25c two oz. tube is sufficient for six or eight weeks of the pyorrhea treatment. Get Senreco at your druggists today, or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Sental Remedies Co., 503 Union Central Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Edison Triumphant

This week—Oct. 18th to 23rd—is a week of celebration for the master inventor's greatest achievements.

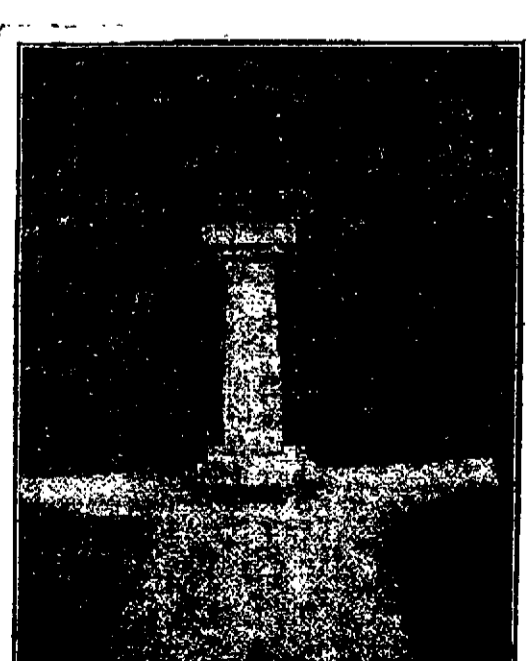

Complete triumph in just 10 months over the tremendous difficulties of New Jersey's greatest foe.

The country is bowing to Mr. Edison's greatness. One of the greatest of all his inventions—his pet and hobby—the one to which he has given most of his time is The Diamond Disc Phonograph.

Here the New Edison—note how perfectly it reproduces the artist's music—human, life-like, natural. It is the laboratory recreation of music as opposed to manufactured music. The musical instrument as opposed to the talking machine.

Special Concert Every Day
We have arranged a special concert for tomorrow—a splendid Edison Week Program. Come and hear this choice program of the world's best music. Note how the distinctive tone of the artist is preserved. No mechanical timbre. The artist is before you in all but form. Come and bring your friends. No charge for seats. Judge Mr. Edison's great triumph for yourself.
